Andrea Wandersee

FOR SYRACUSE COMMON COUNCIL, DISTRICT 1

Andrea Wandersee is an education advocate who has worked to improve our schools and provide opportunities for our youth. Andrea is committed to economic justice and fair treatment for all – and is fighting to make Syracuse a sanctuary city for immigrants.

Andrea is working to grow our economy and help ensure that local small businesses can create good-paying, secure jobs. She supports diversity training, which aims to expand employment opportunities for people of every gender, race and religion – and for those living with disabilities. Andrea is the Director of the Open Hand Theater, a non-profit organization which provides after-school and youth programs.

The current wave of intolerance and extremism is threatening our human rights, health care, jobs and livelihoods. It has never been more important to elect strong leaders here in Syracuse, who will stand up for equality and economic security, so our families and communities can thrive.

Latoya Allen

FOR SYRACUSE COMMON COUNCIL, DISTRICT 4

Latoya Allen has helped countless children through her leadership of a south side mentoring program. She is committed to creating opportunities through education and jobs, expanding affordable housing, and helping lift people out of poverty.

Latoya supports our efforts to win good contracts with fair wages and benefits, and to promote justice for all. She is fighting to ensure that neighborhood residents who want to start businesses can succeed and create good jobs. She founded the Precious Lily & Brotherhood Foundation, a community program that helps children cope with bullying, and develop learning and career skills.
