

Our 1199SEIU North Hempstead Team

Laura Curran

FOR NASSAU COUNTY EXECUTIVE

Laura Curran is standing with the members of 1199SEIU and the Long Island Federation of Labor in advancing measures and programs that promote a more secure future for all working people.

Laura Curran has served on the County Legislature for four years. Her many accomplishments include expanding access to community healthcare services like free preventive screenings, and restoring funding for public transportation. As County Executive, Laura will fight corruption and make sure hard-working families are the top priority. She is committed to creating more affordable housing, particularly in the areas near our train and bus stations.

The current wave of intolerance and extremism is threatening our human rights, health care, jobs and livelihoods. It has never been more important to elect strong leaders here in North Hempstead, who will stand up for equality and economic security, so our families and communities can thrive.

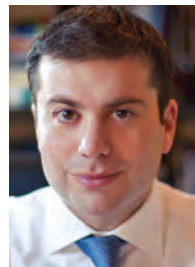

VOTE TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7

Jack Schnirman

FOR NASSAU COUNTY COMPTROLLER

Jack Schnirman has listened to the voices of Nassau County residents and is running for Comptroller on a platform of integrity. He has already successfully tackled fraud in county government and saved us millions of dollars.

Jack is taking on corruption that has unnecessarily cost taxpayers money, and standing up for an end to business as usual. He is doing everything possible to make Nassau County affordable, with resources and opportunities to raise our families.

Wayne Wink

FOR NORTH HEMPSTEAD TOWN CLERK

Wayne Wink was a county legislator for many years and knows how important Medicaid is to seniors, people with disabilities and working families. That's why he has joined us in speaking out to stop any cuts to the Affordable Care Act and Medicaid.

Wayne has consistently protected funding for essential senior, social services and youth programs. He sponsored a law prohibiting the sale of dangerous cough suppressants to minors, and "Silver Alert" legislation that notifies the community when a person with dementia is missing.

Dean Bennett

FOR NASSAU COUNTY CLERK

Dean Bennett grew up in a union family. He knows firsthand the struggles that we face. Dean has dedicated much of his life to fighting for economic equality and standing up against job discrimination.

Dean Bennett helped create job opportunities through his leadership with the NYS Minority and Women Business Development Program. He served as Director of the Equal Employment Opportunity Office here in Nassau County, standing up for fair treatment of all people.

Lee Seeman

NORTH HEMPSTEAD TOWN COUNCIL

Lee Seeman is a community activist who has been fighting for fairness and social justice for many years. On the North Hempstead Town Council for three terms, she has led the effort to improve youth and senior programs.

Lee sponsored Project Independence, a program that brings together caregivers and the community to help frail seniors remain in their homes. Lee is a longtime member of the NAACP and League of Women Voters, and worked with President Clinton to preserve Holocaust memorials around the world.
